1. During the last week of April 1951, anti-Government pamphlets were distributed in Boyana, Knyazhevo and other mostated suburbs of Sofia. Their distribution led to numerous arrests and the detention of a number of officers. Some of the arrests were purely preventive, to avoid any anti-Government manifestations on the first of May. The content of the above mentioned pamphlets is not known.

2. Approximately 1,000 persons in all were arrested in Sofia, many of them being pre-1944 officers, politicians and officials. Source claims that a contributory reason for the arrest is the Government's concern lest Radio Goryanin's effect should be to produce some form of liberation movement.
